Vision: To be the Source and Symbol of Management Excellence

THE SUMMIT

As opportunity widens for women to assume leadership positions in public and private sectors, what leadership values and innate qualities should they bring to the management of our nation, corporates and institutions?

How do women mobilize to facilitate desired change in society? The 2011 summit which is one of the major events to mark the 50th anniversary of the Nigerian Institute of Management will focus on those issues.

The summit will also review the role of women in the country's socio-economic development and chart a new path for their engagement in the national development process.

In addition to bringing to participants new thoughts and insights on leadership, management and the nation-building process, the summit will provide them opportunities for high-grade networking.

ISSUES

- ❖ Nigerian Women's Contribution to National Development: Past, Present and Future
- ❖ Removing the Hurdles to Effective Female Participation in the Political Process
